

The 20th International Conference on Information Systems Development

Reflections, Challenges and New Directions

The 20th International Conference on Information Systems Development (ISD 2011) will be hosted by The School of Mathematical and Computer Sciences, Heriot-Watt University, Edinburgh. The theme of the conference is set to reflect the 20th conference and looks at “Reflections, Challenges and New Directions”.

The tracks relevant to the conference include (but are not limited to):

- Business Systems Analysis & Design
- Data and Activity Modelling
- Software Processes, Methods and Models
- Sociotechnical Issues in Organisations
- Web and Mobile ISD
- Issues in ISD Education & Training
- E-learning within ISD
- IS/IT Project Management
- ISD Business Models for Digital Goods
- Agile and Lean Methods
- Knowledge Management in ISD
- Database Design and Technologies
- Human-Computer Interaction in ISD
- New and Emerging Issues in ISD

Invited speakers:

Ian Sommerville, St Andrews University
Nick Taylor, Heriot Watt University

Important dates

- Proposals for tracks, February 8, 2011
- Paper submission deadline: April 22, 2011
- Notification of Acceptance: June 6, 2011
- Camera-ready Paper: June 27, 2011
- Early Registration: June 29, 2011
- Late Registration: August 1, 2011

Paper publication

All papers selected for this conference are peer reviewed and will be published in the regular conference proceedings by Springer.

Local Program Co-Chairs:

Jenny Coady - J.Coady@hw.ac.uk
Rob Pooley - R.J.Pooley@hw.ac.uk

International Advisory Committee

Henry Linger, Monash University, Australia
Chris Barry, NUI Galway, Ireland
Michael Lang, NUI Galway, Ireland
Christoph Schneider, City University of Hong Kong