

SCHOOL OF INFORMATION
UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN

Contribute to research projects in a highly mentored environment

Research projects in the past have included

- The Ark: Performer-centric Access to Live Music Recordings
- Designing for Disadvantaged Job Seekers
- The Future of Data-Related Publications
- Examining the Impact of Telemedicine on Clinical Work
- Curiosity and Control in Teams Working with Robots
- Exploring the Impact of US Public Libraries

Highlights

- 12-week research project
- In-depth orientation and weekly educational seminars
- $10,000 stipend

Qualifications

- U.S. citizen or permanent resident
- Enrolled in a master's program or 2017 graduate
- Minimum 3.0 GPA
- Participate full-time during program

Top priority for applicants from underrepresented populations and/or from schools with limited research opportunities.

Research Experience for Master's Students

12-week paid summer research experience

Are you interested in applying to a doctoral program or would you like to find out more about what PhD programs entail? Explore a research career, investigating such topics as the impact of libraries and archives, knowledge visualization, user experience, social computing and health informatics.

May 30 - August 18, 2017

Funding provided by the Institute for Museum and Library Services and the University of Michigan Rackham Graduate School, Faculty Allies for Diversity program.

DETAILS AND HOW TO APPLY:

umsi.info/rems

Application Deadline: February 15, 2017

Learn more about the field of Information and the graduate degrees offered by the School of Information at si.umich.edu